CHILD NOT TO BLAME
Theodore Roosevelt was seriously handicapped until about the age of thirteen. Neither he nor his parents realized until then that his EYES WERE DEFECTIVE. He says "My first pair of glasses literally opened a new world to me."
If your child lags school, is behind in his classes or is apparently "staring his eyes out" at fault.
If so, by careful refraction and right glasses we can furnish relief, and maybe, "open a new world" to him.
Have it done now, that the eyes may become accustomed to glasses before hard school work begins.

ANDREWS MEN WIN IN WALK OVER ROMERO AND BACA
Bernalillo County Republican Boss Suffers Decisive Defeat at Hands of Combination of Former Allies.
UNABLE TO HOLD EVEN COUNTRY FOR ELEGO
Talk of Contest in County Convention, but Sheriff Says the Evidence is Convincing and He will Abide.

Although the adherents of William H. Andrews, for the Republican nomination for congress, won a decisive victory in the Republican primary yesterday afternoon and last night, carrying a majority of the county delegates and sweeping the two city precincts by overwhelming majorities, it was not so much an expression of favor for Andrews as of disfavor for Elego Baca, the candidate of Boss Jesus Romero for the congressional nomination. Romero was unable to hold even the county precincts, where his chief strength lies, for Baca, and as indicated by the early returns published by the Herald last night, precinct after precinct which had been claimed by Romero for his candidate and his organization went for the Andrews delegates.
Mr. Andrews has a clear majority of fifty votes in the county convention of next week, having elected seventy-nine of the one hundred and eight delegates, while the Romero-Baca faction has but twenty-nine votes in the convention.
A powerful combination against his assumption of the role of party boss, and strong public sentiment in the rank and file of Republicans against his candidate caused the defeat of Romero. Frank A. Hubbell, for years inactive in local politics, was stirred to take a hand in this primary and to his work in the county and the direction of the anti-Romero campaign by W. H. Gillett, who is due the result.
There was loud talk on the street last night among some of the disappointed adherents of the sheriff about contesting some of the delegations in the county convention. This, however, was quickly silenced by Sheriff Romero, who stated early in the evening that the result was convincing to him of the fact that the Republicans did not want to endorse Baca for congress and that he would accept defeat and the will of the majority. It is likely therefore that the convention will give a unanimous vote for the endorsement of Andrews, and that he and those who managed his primary campaign will completely dominate the convention and the resulting party organization.
Elego Baca, thus defeated in his home county for a congressional endorsement, has said that in the event of the nomination of Andrews he will bolt the ticket and work against Andrews.
The Romero-Baca campaign in the two city precincts was handled by Attorney John W. Wilson, Charles Chadwick and others who were active in Mayor Bontrigg's successful campaign in the spring.
While there is a disposition to accept the defeat which was too convincing to be evaded, there is strong talk in the rank and file of the Romero adherents which indicates that the wide open party split can hardly be healed without a repetition of the seven years' war which gave this county the banner among Republicans of New Mexico for factional troubles.

MOOSE MAY NOT DECIDE SAN SITE FOR TWELVE MONTHS
Dr. W. T. Salmon, who went to Milwaukee as a delegate from the Moose lodge here to the national convention, has written a friend here from Chicago, where he is now visiting, regarding the sanitarium prospect.
Dr. Salmon feels convinced that choice has narrowed down to Albuquerque, Phoenix and Colorado Springs, but that it will probably be a year before a decision is reached. He says the lodge will spend more than a million on the institution if tentative plans are carried out.
Dr. Salmon is one of four widely known physicians among the Moose who have spent nine months studying the sanitarium proposition.

ST. JOHN'S GUILD TO PRESENT FARCE COMEDY
The ladies of the Guild of St. John's church will shortly present the delightful and side-splitting farce comedy, "All a Mistake," with an exceptionally strong cast. "All a Mistake" is considered by many to be the finest farce comedy ever written, and is seldom of the road, two or more professional companies touring with it all the time. The coach is Prof. Easton-Jenner, a graduate of the London dramatic school, and a highly finished performer in theatre, farce and comedy. Watch for the date.

TOOK BIT OF BELT TO MEND A SHOE; CAUGHT AND FINED
O. J. Sena, an employe at the Santa Fe shops, was arraigned today before Justice of the Peace George B. Craig by Special Agent George H. Thomas of the Santa Fe police, charged with stealing a piece of leather belt. He took the leather to mend a pair of shoes. The charge was petty larceny.
Sena was fined $10 and costs. As a matter of principle the company took back the piece of leather.
It was explained to Sena in court that the company had to be strict about such matters because if employes were allowed to help themselves to any little thing that might be of use to them in their homes, the aggregate loss to the company would be great.

SHAMBECK BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS CONCLUDED
F. W. Shambeck, who conducted the Club saloon and rooming house, was discharged in bankruptcy today. The report of J. A. Miller, the trustee, was approved by Referee in Bankruptcy John W. Wilson, and Mr. Miller was discharged.
There were no dividends for the general creditors.

New York, Aug. 8.—The White Star liner Olympic, to have cleared from this port today with British reserves, was held up indefinitely under receipt of orders from the British admiralty. The sailing of the Red Star liner Vaderland, on which 1,000 Belgian reservists were booked for a British port, also was delayed. In the case of the Olympic, the Vaderland's sailing was called off by orders from the admiralty. No other explanation was given. Notwithstanding her name, the Vaderland is a British boat.
The order to hold the Olympic was received after she had been given clearance papers by the customs officials and all preparations had been made for sailing. Approximately 500 persons had engaged passage upon her.
The Vaderland has a stowage capacity of more than 2,000, about half of which was occupied by Belgian reservists.
Neither of the vessels was detained by custom officials and the postponement of their sailings was due, it was said, entirely to change in plans by the British government. Customs officials announced today that no attempt would be made to detain vessels carrying reservists.
In addition to the Olympic and Vaderland, five other trans-Atlantic liners announced sailing for today, three of them crowded with reservists. These were the Fabre liner Saint Anna, sailing for Marseilles with 1,100 French reservists—referred to by the line as "1,100 destitute Frenchmen"—the Columbia of the Anchor Line, bound for Glasgow, with her stowage overflowing; the Europa, sailing for Naples with 1,400 Italians and Montenegrins in her stowage, and the first consignment of mail sent to Austria and Germany in several days; the White Star liner Adriatic for Liverpool, and the Atlantic Transport liner Minnehaha for London. The Minnehaha, used chiefly for freight, had but 14 passengers. All five vessels were given clearance papers.
The Olympic's passengers were transferred to the Adriatic after the suspension of the Olympic's sailing was announced.
The Adriatic sailed at noon. The Minnehaha sailed at the same time. Two hundred and thirty first cabin passengers from the Cunard line steamship Mauretania, which put into Halifax after a trip from England to avoid capture by German warships, arrived in New York today by train.
The Mauretania is still at Halifax and it is understood that she would be converted into a British cruiser.

RESERVISTS WILL NOT BE DETAINED BY THE U. S.
Washington, Aug. 8.—New instructions to collectors of customs designed to free commerce from all possible restrictions and still observe neutrality were promulgated today.
Under the new regulations European reservists will be allowed to sail for the home countries if they are not in uniform, do not carry arms and go as individuals.
These instructions supersede instructions recently given without the knowledge of the treasury by the department of commerce, which affected reservists and ships.
President Wilson today issued a proclamation of neutrality to apply to the state of war between Austria-Hungary and Russia. It is similar in terms to those already issued.
Protests from Great Britain were today given as the reason for the drastic orders now rescinded. Because of the absence of Secretary Redfield and the inability to secure final and expert opinion, representatives of the state and treasury departments drew up a set of rules so rigid that the case of any ship whose status was at all questionable would be referred back to Washington.
This step which held up the clearance of the German ship Vaderland filled with reserves for Emperor William's army, brought forth an official inquiry today from the German embassy. The status of the Vaterland and all other ships of the belligerent powers is now established by the new regulations.

Liner Cincinnati Arrives.
Boston, Aug. 8.—The Hamburg-American liner Cincinnati arrived in American waters off Cape Cod at 5 a. m. today, according to wireless messages from the steamer.
Scottish Sailings Cancelled.
Glasgow, Scotland, Aug. 8, 12:20 p. m.—Today's sailings of the steamships of the Anchor, Allan and Donaldson lines were cancelled and about 1,000 Americans and Canadians who booked their passages are left stranded here.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Final arrangements made today for the funeral of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the president, made it certain that the services both at the White House Monday and in Rome, Ga., Tuesday will be the simplest. Every effort will be made to conduct the funeral as if the president were a private citizen.
Secretary Tumulty said in addition to the committees of the senate and house, and members of the cabinet, only relatives and a few of the closest personal friends would attend the services.
Only the family and a few intimate friends will go with the body to Rome for the burial.
Members of the congressional committee will not go to Georgia, because of the desire of the president that the work of congress be continued without interruption. Both the senate and house, however, will adjourn from 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. Monday while the funeral services are going on.
There will be no honorary pallbearers at the White House service.
Attendants at the White House will carry the body from the east room to the hearse and then it will be taken directly to a special train.
The Rev. Sylvester Beach, of Princeton, N. J., the pastor of the Wilson family, and the Rev. J. H. Taylor, of the Central Presbyterian church, Washington, will conduct the services at the White House. The pastor of the Presbyterian church at Rome, of which Mrs. Wilson's father was formerly in charge, will conduct the services at Myrtle Hill cemetery.
The funeral train will leave Washington at 4 p. m. Monday and will arrive at Rome at about 2 p. m. Tuesday. The last services will be conducted immediately and upon arrival at Washington, arriving here late Wednesday afternoon.

BUTT'S DRUG STORE MOVING SODA FOUNTAIN
Today workmen are moving the big soda fountain for the Butt's drug store, from their former location at the corner of Second and Central to the new quarters at 113 West Central, the stand recently occupied by the Combs' cafe. The concern expects to be ready for business in the new stand by the middle of next week.
Mr. Butt is well pleased with his new location and states that he will be better prepared than ever to care for his trade.
He will be able to arrange his fountain fixtures to better advantage and will have more room for handling his drug and prescription trade.
